ABOUT ME

For me, I'm interesting in communication with people and coordinating with people to accomplish the job well. I would love to help my colleagues both within the organization and outside the organization and pay attention to the orderliness of the work with the co-workers. I have compassion for people in every way. For this reason, I have empathy for my colleagues and love all kinds of service, coordination and communicate. I look forward to working with the company that I have chosen and that I will work hard and learn the job to the best of my ability.
